SEXUAL ASSAULT AWARENESS WEEK & TAKE BACK THE NIGHT

September 17th - 23rd, 2023

PEI's Sexual Assault Awareness Week creates space where we can continue developing cultures of consent through inclusive community based education, radical empowerment of survivors and their stories, and coming together to support one another in our unique healing journeys as survivors of sexual and gender based violence.

Healing. Power. Prevention.

About PEI Rape and Sexual Assault Centre

We are a non-profit, government funded organization that provides services to individuals of all genders residing in PEI who have experienced recent or historic sexual assault and childhood sexual abuse.

We offer free counselling support and innovative healing programs from our many locations across the island including Charlottetown, Summerside, Alberton.

PEIRSAC supports and advocates for survivors regardless of gender, sexuality, race, background, or belief. Our aim is to support healing both at the individual and community level, and to work towards spaces where all residents of PEI are safe from sexual violence. To achieve this we work collaboratively with, and in ways that empower, individuals and organizations.

Our Primary Services Include:

- Individual and group therapy and counselling for youth (12+) and adults of all genders
- Psychoeducational information and community programming
- Referrals to other community support programs

About Sexual Assault Awareness Week

Our themes for 2023 are ones of resistance, rebellion, and rest as we push for more community collaboration around consent and prevention of gender based violence (GBV). The week will see an original survivors exhibit at The The Hilda Woolnough Gallery at The Guild, multiple educational sessions surrounding the many facets of consent, and the historical Take Back the Night March, a grassroots movement celebrating 60 years of collective global activism against GBV. The week will end with a celebration of sexual liberation and agency with the Charlottetown Burlesque. All monetary support contributes to PEIRSAC's educational programming and gender based violence prevention efforts.

Let's Challenge Gender Based Violence. Together.
